Glenbard North students ranked first at technology exhibit

Six Glenbard North High School students took first place at the 2005 Western Illinois University Technology Exhibit last month.

First place winners include Jake Elvebo, Raciél Esquivel, Chase Ferguson, Matt Stenstrom, Brandon Wyer (he won twice), and Tim Heichele.

Second place winners include Zach Carlson, Mike DiVito, Tom Gianforte, Greg Heichele, Andrew Hill, and Adam Horvath.

Kyle Woodward received third place for his poker table.

Tim Heichele's project, a beautiful china hutch, was selected for the highest award given in his category for the second year in a row. No other student has accomplished this feat before.

The students' work will be on display starting May 3 in the hallway outside the cafeteria at Glenbard North, 990 N. Kuhn Road in Carol Stream.
